 905. 1787. " " United States, good.
 906. Vermont Auctori, reverse, Et lib Inde, struck over a George Halfpenny.
 This piece, Mr. S. S. Crosby rates No. 6, the highest degree of rarity.
 At the time of the publication of his work, his was the only specimen known, but Dr. Maris of Philadelphia showed me his specimen, and he says this is the fourth piece known. In striking over, the date was obliterated, good for this piece, extremely rare.

 931. 1700. " " " " "
 932. Unique, Immune Columbia, obverse, an eye on a plain field, with a gloria of thirteen points pointing at the eye, whilst in all other pieces of this kind they point from the eye. It has the thirteen stars.
 Another great difference is that the thirteen points intercept twenty-six points, centering around the eye in pairs; reverse, the goddess of liberty seated facing right, &c., just as the one in Crosby, in exergue 1785. In very fine preservation. A numismatic gem of the highest
